Dear Troy,

Thank you for the donation of time and resources that you have contributed to the Open Scripture Information Standard (OSIS) initiative. We greatly appreciate your commitment to OSIS, and the passion that you have for creating and distributing free Bible tools so that the world can engage the Word of God at a deeper level.

It is truly remarkable that someone with your skill set and technical competence has chosen to give so much time in ministry. I applaud your recent decision to devote yourself to full-time ministry. You can count the American Bible Society among those who will work with you and support your efforts. We hope and pray many others will also, so that full-time ministry can be a long-term endeavor for you.

God bless,

John Walter
